Our Camp Is Complete

Today 409 overseas Scouts have arrived with their leaders to complete our camp. The beautiful Blair Castle, set in the middle of the Scottish Highlands is acting as a stunning backdrop to our camp. There are many exciting activities and entertainment awaiting you here at camp.

SCOUTS TO EARN

The White Cockade was the badge worn by the followers of Prince Charles Edward Stuart (Bonnie Prince Charlie) during the Jacobite Rebellion of 1745 – 1746.

The Marquis of Tullibardine, son of the 1st Duke of Atholl, carried the Prince's standard when he landed at Moidart and gathered the clans at Glenfinnan. The Marquis' brother, Lord George Murray, was the General in charge of the Jacobite army.

Scouts can earn a Cockade badge by successfully completing 12 Activities (all activities count as 2) and organise and participate in two social activities in the evening as approved by the Subcamp Uncle or Aunt in charge. In choosing their activities, Scouts must select at least one activity from each of the Activity Zones (Adventure, Basics, Creative, Sport and Treks & Tours). After each activity, the scouts get a sticky badge to put onto the back pages of their camp handbook to keep track of their progress.

Subcamp Gateways Are Ready To Welcome Everyone

The Six Subcamps

Every Scout is welcomed into one of the six Subcamps which are named after Scottish Clans. Every Clan has an 'Aunty' or 'Uncle' who is your Clan Chief and they will need your support when your Clan takes part in friendly competition with the other Subcamps. This year, each Subcamp has it's own theme which everyone will be involved with. Old MacDonald had a farm, it is yo ho ho a pirates life for Maclean, Murray are scrumming down with rugby, Morrison are sharpening their spears for their tribe, roll up roll up for Robertson Circus and Stewart is playing with Toystory.

Auntie Freeze

Hello to all my wee scouting cherubs out there. I am your friendly Scottish Agony Aunt, Auntie Freeze and I am here to help sort out any little niggling problems you might have here at camp. Whether someone is eating biscuits in bed and getting crumbs in your sleeping bag, snoring very loudly and you canny sleep or humming when they brush their teeth, just write me a wee note and I will pass on my perils of wisdom. I am here to help you all my little darling, so just hand in your wee notes to the lovely staff at the Kastle Kurrents office (behind Krafts in the Kastle).

Bye bye for now and I'll hear from you soon.

Doctor Doctor I swallowed a bone.
Are you choking?
No, I really did!

Read All About It

Hello from your every own friendly camp newspaper, bring you the latest news from the field. We will be relying on you to help find stories, gossips, jokes, recipes and photographs, to help make this a fun paper. You can do this by working as one of our reporters during activities or you can leave your stories and photographs (memory stick or camera memory card) with one of Kastle Kurrents helpful team.
