Ceud Mile Fàilte

Ceud Mile Fàilte is the traditional Gaelic greeting that can be seen above the main camp gateway. In Scotland it means “A hundred thousand welcomes” and on behalf of all the Scottish Scouts and volunteer Staff who are already at camp, I would like to wish that to you all.

We are delighted that you have been able to join us in Blair Atholl, especially since international travel has been quite difficult recently. We have fifteen countries represented during the camp which makes this a fantastic example of international Scouting.

The Scottish volunteer staff have been working for 6 days to turn an empty field into the Scouting Village you see around you. Yesterday 500 Scottish Scouts arrived and set up their campsites ready to welcome you, our overseas friends. You'll be working, cooking, eating and playing alongside a Scottish patrol, making a fantastic team.

We have ten days of fun, activity and adventure planned on our ‘field of dreams’ and in the hills and lochs nearby. I'm certain that you'll enjoy yourself, take away many happy memories, and make friendships that will last a lifetime. Have an amazing time.

Welcome to Blair Atholl from the camp medical team.

Drs Catriona, Kathryn & Martin

Nurses Fiona, Lou and Oliwia

All work alongside a group of enthusiastic first aiders, paramedics, nurses and more. We hope you have a fantastic time and never have the misfortune of needing our medical attention.

Because you'll be camping here for 11/12 nights it's especially important that you try to keep yourself healthy so here's some helpful advice:

If there's sun – wear hats, t-shirts and suntan lotion....If it's raining – keep dry.

If you're dirty – wash.....If you're not dirty – wash anyway (including your feet).

If you're cooking or eating – wash your hands before you do so.

If you're injured.... See Subcamp staff first (you can apply your own plaster if you want). If you're more seriously injured or unwell.... see Subcamp staff who can arrange for you to see the doctor.

If you have an upset stomach or tick bites, tell the Subcamp staff.

If you're accident prone, wear protective clothing at all times if you're not accident prone, take care anyway, especially around guy ropes, fires and sharp objects!!

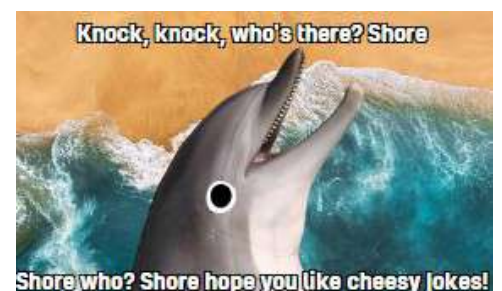

If wee is clear, no problem here, if wee is yellow, ill fellow.... drink plenty.

Most importantly have fun, enjoy the camp and if you need the medical team, we're here to help.

We have a medical tent located by reception where we run clinics at 9am & 5pm.

I'm ready for the rest of this week!
I have my umbrella,
my flip flops,
my mittens,
my suntan lotion,
my winter coat,
my sunglasses,
my thermals,
my iced tea
and my hot chocolate!

MYSTAKE MCLEOD

Meet Mystake McLeod our new camp fortune teller, he will be predicting the future for you in the coming days.

MacLean (Disco) – Hope you have the right gear, and you're not taking a chance. Whether there's hail, rain, or sunshine, the disco sub camp must dance

Morrison (Safari) – If your tent falls during the night, your view will be starry. Let's hope you don't come across any killers on your Morrison safari

MacDonald (Pixar) – It may be sunny now, but the rain is probably near, if worse comes to worst, be prepared, there'll be no help from Buzz Lightyear

Stewart (Lego) – Building your Lego camp up brick by brick, you better wash your hands or else you'll all be getting sick

Murray (Mystery) – This year as you camp on the Blair Atholl grass, beware of what you'll find through the Murray magnifying glass

The Kastle activities are a fly away success even before they start!

You will now find some of them in Perth

Hello my darlings spill the tea with with your Aunty Aggie...

Dear Auntie Aggie

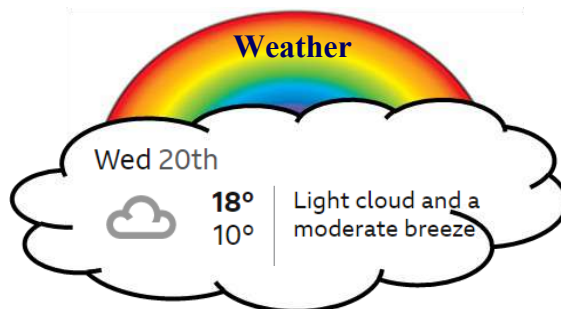

I feel self conscious about eating my Kit Kat by myself. I have spoken to my friends and the girls like sharing with people they don't know and the boys prefer sharing with a friend. Please help solve my dilemma. PS Urgent reply requested as my Kit Kats are melting.

Casey (Stewart Subcamp).

Well my dearie, first of all chill, get your chocolate in the fridge, no one likes a sticky mess. Its totally up tae you who you decide to share your Kit Kat with, it's a modern society after all. Off you go and make new friends, just mind and no be a litter bug. Bin yer wrappings.

Be thankful it's not snowing...

Imagine shovelling snow in this heat!
