A Story for Everyone

Once upon a time, there were four people; their names were Everybody, Somebody, Nobody and Anybody.

Whenever there was an important job to be done, Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it but Nobody did it.

When Nobody did it, Everybody got angry because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought that Somebody would do it, but Nobody realized that Nobody would do it.

So consequently Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done in the first place.

Which 'Body' are you?

We're over halfway through the camp. Some folk are starting to getting tired.

What can you do today that could give this story a happier ending?

How are socks like Scouts?

They always come pre-paired.

If you think you're too small to make a difference you haven't spent the night with a mosquito.

How many of our Scouts and Leaders from Overseas have you met so far?

Unscramble the names of the following countries to help remind you how many nationalities we have here at Blair Atholl.

A lesson from a Tree

The tree stands so patiently,
Not asking, "What can I be? What can I be?"

For a tree is as sure as a tree can be.
Without a doubt, it knows its worth,
Roots delving deep into the Earth,
Branches standing strong and proud,
Pointing at the passing clouds.

All of nature loves the tree,
In its beautiful simplicity,
And without speaking, it teaches me,
To be happy with just being me.

Bring brave isn't the absence of fear. Being brave is having that fear but finding a way through it.
